NAG 6 Policy re Administration

.21 Procedure on STEALING

- Stealing is an unacceptable infringement on the rights of others

Any pupil of the school who is caught, or admits to, or is shown to have been, stealing during school hours can be stood down.

- Any suspension for stealing shall be at the discretion of the College Principal Group.
- Any decision whether to stand down or not shall take into account the seriousness of the circumstances surrounding the stealing and afford the student the right to reply for natural justice.
- In every case, the pupil shall be required to return in good condition, or pay for, all items stolen.

In each case the parents shall be informed of the stealing and, when appropriate, consulted on the consequences.
